John E. Marlow Master Classes

Master Class with Betta Rojas

Come hear our world-renowned performers teach the talented youth of DC in our Master Class series. Audience and students alike will leave these Master Classes with a broader understanding of the art of music, the art of guitar and sometimes, the art of life.

The 2016-17 Master Class series is presented in partnership with The Levine School of Music, Montgomery College, the Embassy of Spain and Chevy Chase Village Hall. Please stay in tune and visit our website for more information. www.marlowguitar.org

Jason Vieaux

USA
October 22, 2016
 Westmoreland Congregational Church

Expressive and virtuosic, Jason Vieaux is “perhaps the most precise and soulful classical guitarist of his generation” (NPR) and “among the elite of today’s classical guitarists” (Gramophone).

Vieaux returns to Marlow for the first time since winning a 2015 Grammy for his album ‘Play’.

Rene Izquierdo

Sponsored by Charlotte Kuenen and David Kirstein

CUBA
November 19, 2016
 Westmoreland Congregational Church

Rene Izquierdo was recognized from a young age as one of the finest guitarists to emerge from Cuba. Known for his warm tone and impeccable musicianship, we look forward to welcoming Rene for his Marlow debut.

“His natural and instinctive interpretations are second to none: his virtuosic technique allows him absolute command of the instrument.”

Antigoni Goni

GREECE
February 25, 2017
 Westmoreland Congregational Church

Since first winning competitions and public admiration in the 1990s with her colorful and virtuosic playing, Greek guitarist Antigoni Goni has gone on to an international career, performing throughout Europe, Russia, North and South America and Asia.

Antigoni’s Marlow debut coincides with the release of her beautiful new solo album, ‘Hymn to the Muse’, a recording of works inspired by Greece.

Zoran Dukic

CROATIA
January 28, 2017
 Cultural Arts Center Montgomery College, Silver Spring/Takoma Park

Returning to Marlow after his stunning 2015 series debut, Zoran Dukic is a phenomenon not to be missed. His effortless fluidity and depth of expression astound audiences around the world.

“A thrilling concert... the audience was on its feet after the first piece... a phenomenal evening.”

- - Gevelsberger Zeitung, Germany

Margarita Escarpa

SPAIN
March 18, 2017
 Westmoreland Congregational Church

Spanish guitarist Margarita Escarpa, a Marlow audience favorite, celebrates her Marlow return with a special program of Spanish and Mexican repertoire.

A winner of international competitions, Margarita combines impressive technique with warm interpretation and musicality.

“... Escarpa held the audience under her seductive and bewitching spell. She indeed is a musical sorceress.”

Billy Novick & Guy Van Duser

USA
April 22, 2017
 Westmoreland Congregational Church

We conclude with the great fun and sweet melodies of Swing jazz. This fabulous duo of guitar and clarinet will carry us through the Big Band, gypsy jazz and American Songbook eras.

“Smooth-struttin’ jazz and smokey blues...a rare fusion of emotion and intellect.”

- - Montreal Gazette

“A sound so full that it’s hard to believe only two people hold the stage.”

- - Calgary Herald
